102 Traincation - featured in Southern Living - in the heart of Pigeon Forge

This vacation rental from Vacasa contains all the comforts of home (and then some!) in a charming 1916-era caboose for an unforgettable “Traincation” in the Eastern Tennessee mountains, right in the heart of Pigeon Forge. This is located in the heart of the action on Veterans Blvd, next to a mountain coaster and within a mile of Dollywood.

A charming faux ticket counter greets you right at the front door. Once inside, you’ll find a cute and compact house with wooden floors and walls that make it feel cozier than a sleeper car. The space has two bedrooms—one with a king-sized bed, and one with two single bunk beds. The space even has a sound machine that can play “railway sounds” as you sleep—which will probably appeal more to kids than adults.

Inside the caboose side of the property, there is a den with an electric fireplace, smart TV, and wood-and-leather seating that will remind you of riding the rails. There’s one bathroom (which has a slate shower) and a small but well-appointed kitchen in case you want to prepare coffee or a meal at home. Smoky Mountain Station’s exterior is thoughtfully designed too. Outside, there is a small deck with a hot tub, plus a fire pit with Adirondack chairs that’s perfect for making s’mores. Hanging strands of glowing garden lights give the space a dreamy look at night.

Enjoy your four day/three-night stay at a date to be determined with guest and owner. Holiday weekends and the months of June, July, and October are excluded. Cleaning fee is $85. Visit the Vacasa site # 71488 for more pictures and details.

Just south of Garden City Beach is Murrells Inlet, a seaside community that is considered to be the "Seafood Capital of South Carolina", but is also home to some of the nation's best golf courses. Once primarily a fishing village, the town is best known for the Murrells Inlet MarshWalk, a half-mile long boardwalk overlooking a pristine salt marsh, and the many award-winning seafood and barbecue restaurants along Highway 17 Business in the central business district.

Brookgreen Gardens, a sculpture garden and wildlife preserve built on four former rice plantations, is located slightly south of Murrells Inlet. It features several themed gardens with American figurative sculptures placed in them, trails through several nature reserve ecosystems and the Lowcountry Zoo.

If you're looking for places to shop, Inlet Square Mall, The Market Common, Coastal Grand, Myrtle Beach Mall, Broadway at the Beach, Barefoot Landing, two Tanger shopping outlets, countless strip-malls, and many more shopping facilities are all within an easy drive from Garden City Beach. Looking for some entertainment, take in a show at Alabama Theater, Medieval Times, The Carolina Opry, Pirates Voyage, and Legends in Concert. And don't forget about Ripley's Aquarium, Alligator Adventure, Hard Rock Cafe, Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville, and The Pavilion Nostalgia Park.

Other points of interest close by include the waterfront community of Georgetown, the third oldest city in South Carolina and second largest seaport in South Carolina, and historic Conway with its downtown Riverwalk area nestled on the banks of the Waccamaw River. Both towns include fine dining, shopping, and historic sites.

One of the oldest civilizations in the world, India is a mosaic of multicultural experiences. Home to approximately 1.2 billion people, India defies easy descriptions. Geographically, the country has everything from deserts and majestic mountain ranges, to jungles, forests, and tropical, palm-fringed coastline, while in between you'll find languages, cuisine, customs, and clothing as diverse as the topography. With a rich heritage and myriad attractions, the country is among the most popular tourist destinations in the world.

Days 1-3: Arrive and transfer to The Glenburn Penthouse in the heart of historic Kolkata (formerly Calcutta) for a 3-night stay with daily breakfast and afternoon tea. The city's first boutique hotel has spectacular views of iconic landmarks - from Victoria Memorial to Eden Gardens, the lush green expanse of the Maidan and the majestic bridges that cross the River Hoogly - and a rooftop pool with panoramic views across the city. Enjoy a 2hour private sunset boat cruise in Kolkata.

Day 4: Travel by air* and road to Glenburn Tea Estate in the Darjeeling foothills of the Indian Himalayas. Glenburn is a heavenly little plantation retreat that lies above the banks of the River Rungeet, high in the Himalayas. Started by a Scottish tea company in 1859, Glenburn passed into the hands of one of India's pioneering tea planting families – The Prakashes. They have over the years come to be known as the “Chaiwala family” which literally means “tea planters”. Today, the third and fourth generation Prakash family carry almost a century of tea knowledge in their inheritance, and you can experience this legacy at Glenburn.

Enjoy a picnic at a scenic spot during the journey from the airport up to the estate. Arrive in the early evening and settle into your suite where you'll spend 4 nights in the Grand Bengal suite.

Enjoy the evening with drinks by the bonfire followed by a fourcourse dinner with your hosts and other guests in residence. All meals, snacks, and drinks (Glenburn tea, coffee, herbal teas and juices) are included.

Day 5: Explore the 1,600-acre private estate with an introduction to the specialized art of growing and crafting Glenburn Tea. Visit the tea fields, interact with the tea pickers and follow the journey of "two leaves and bud" into the tea factory, ending with a tea tasting session to discover the incredible variety of flavors and aromas that come from a single bush through the different seasons. Enjoy lunch at the Bungalow followed by a gentle afternoon hike, or take time to relax on one of the peaceful verandas.

Days 6-7: Visit the local primary school and interact with the children during assembly. Take a two-hour hike down to the Glenburn Campsite for a barbecue lunch and relax by the River Rangeet.

Day 8: Transfer to the airport of Bagdogra for a coach class flight to New Delhi. Enjoy a 2-night stay at the 5-star Le Meridien New Delhi. Located in the heart of the city, the iconic glass building of Le Meridien New Delhi has been recognized as one of the 100 Icons of New Delhi.

Day 9: Journey back to the days of India's Mughal Empire on this private Delhi to Agra tour. Visit two of India's most famous UNESCO World Heritage Sites - the Taj Mahal and Agra Fort. Learn how India's most stunning homage to love was built by Shah Jahan in memory of his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal. Make a stop at Agra Fort and admire the 16th- and 17th-century architecture of the Mughal monument. This one-day journey includes a private guide, entrance fees, lunch and chauffeur service in a luxury car.

HBO's Game of Thrones began as a scrappy upstart launched by two TV novices in 2011 and finished its run in 2019 as the most popular show in the world. The show aired in more than 170 countries and holds the record for most Emmys ever won by a prime-time series. Much of the show was filmed in Northern Ireland, including The Kingsroad, Winterfell, The Wall and Dragonstone.

For those who have not yet binge-watched this show, A Game of Thrones is the first novel in A Song of Ice and Fire, a series of fantasy novels by George R.R. Martin. This 7-day tour will take you into the very heart of the Seven Kingdoms landscape. Stand on the spot where Lannisters schemed, stroll in the footsteps of the Starks, and gaze on grasslands crossed by the Dothraki horde.

Itinerary:

Day 1 - Arrival Day - Dublin

Dublin, the largest city in Ireland, is a 30-minute ride by taxi or bus from the airport. Today you will visit Ireland’s biggest tourist attraction - the Guinness Storehouse. With your VIP passes, skip the line and learn about the history of one of the world’s most famous breweries. Enjoy a complimentary pint of Guinness and an astonishing view of the city at Gravity, the “bar in the sky” on the top floor. Other attractions you can explore in the city are Jameson Distillery, Trinity College, Dublin Castle, Kilmainham Goal, and St. Patrick Cathedral. Stay overnight at the Cassidys Hotel (3-star).

Day 2 - Dublin to Ballygally Castle

Pick up your rental car (included) and make your way to Ballygally Castle Hotel. Perched on the tip of the famous Causeway Coastal Route, Ballygally Castle Hotel dates back to 1625 and is the only 17th Century building still used as a residence in Northern Ireland today. It is the perfect base for exploring the stunning Antrim Coast and the Game of Thrones locations. During filming, cast and crew were frequently found relaxing at the Castle.

Situated on the scenic Antrim Coast Road with views to Scotland, Ballygally Castle is 26 miles north of Belfast.

Overnight at Ballygally Castle.

Day 3 – Antrim Coastal Route

Head out to explore the stunning Antrim Coast, known as one of the World's Great Road Journeys. The stunning scenery within the Causeway Coast and Glens was used to represent everything from Winterfell to the Kingsroad, The Iron Islands to the Stormlands. Northern Ireland's greatest natural attraction is the Giant's Causeway; while not featured in Game of Thrones, it simply cannot be missed. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is a five-mile long stretch of coastline which is famous for its bizarre basalt columns. On a jagged outcrop high above the waves sits the ruins of Dunluce Castle or House of Greyjoy, as Game of Thrones fans knew it. A tour of the castle is included. Further down the road is Downhill Strand, famous for its seven-mile stretch of golden sand. This is where Lady Melisandre burned the seven gods of Westeros in sacrifice to R'hllor. Your final stop of the day is the Dark Hedges. This haunting avenue of serpentine beech trees was used to depict the Kingsroad. This is where Arya disguised herself as a boy to avoid capture. Return to Ballygally Castle Hotel for another night.

Day 4 – Belfast City

In recent years, Belfast has reinvented itself as one of the top-rated tourist destinations in the world; Lonely Planet has named Belfast and the Causeway Coast in Northern Ireland as the best place to visit in 2018.

Start your day with a drive through the green Shillanavogy Valley where the ferocious Dothraki hoard set up camp. This verdant valley was transformed into the swaying grasslands of Vaes Dothrak. Continue past the Magheramore Quarry, the iconic backdrop to Castle Black and Hardhome. In reality, Magheramore is a small hamlet of about 75 people that's home to an old stone quarry. The cement plant closed in 1980, and the quarry was used primarily as a set for Game of Thrones. Arrive at the Europa Hotel, one of the world's most famous hotels, located in the heart of Belfast. Beautifully restored, the Europa hotel is a five-minute walk to the shopping district, museums, theaters and the restaurants and bars in the golden mile. The Grand Opera House, Titanic Belfast, the Waterfront Hall and Odyssey Arena are also close by.

Overnight at Europa Hotel.

Day 5 – Tollymore Park, Inch Abbey & Belfast City Your first stop today is Tollymore Forest Park which made its mark in Game of Thrones as the Haunted Forest. This park is framed by the Mourne Mountains, featured in many background scenes. Continue to the 12th century Inch Abbey, where Catelyn Stark heard of Ned's death, where Jaime was captured and where Robb was crowned King. The surrounding countryside will look familiar, as this is where Arya and the Hound's uneasy relationship kept us spellbound as they navigated the rugged landscape to reach the Red Fork. In the afternoon, return to Belfast City. One of the city's most interesting attractions is the Titanic Exhibition Center, the historic shipyard where the RMS

Titanic, the world's most famous ship, was built. Paint Hall Studios, one of Europe's largest film studios (and where Game of Thrones was produced) sits on an eight-acre site in the Titanic Quarter of Belfast.

Overnight at Europa Hotel.

Day 6 – Belfast to Bainbrige, then to Dublin,

Continue exploring Belfast at your leisure before driving to Dublin (approximately 2 hours). En route, stop in at Linen Mills Studios for the Game of Thrones Studio Tour. Located at the authentic filming location of Linen Mills Studios in Banbridge, Northern Ireland. Step behind the scenes of The Seven Kingdoms and beyond. Immerse yourself in the expansive collection of costumes, props, sets, and weapons. Continue to Dublin City for your final night in Ireland. The Gap of Dunloe is a beautiful glacial valley in the Macgillycuddy's Reeks mountain range, which dominate the skyline of Killarney. The three main lakes of Killarney and the mountains that surround them are all within the Killarney National Park. The Lower Lake is nearest to the town; it is studded with islands and has Muckross Abbey and Ross Castle on its eastern shore.

Take a jaunting cart (pony & carriage) for a 10km journey through the Gap, in the heart in the Macgillycuddy's Reeks. You will experience some of Ireland's most breath-taking scenery. Take a 20km boat trip through the Upper Lake, the most beautiful of the Three Lakes, through the Long Range Rover and past Eagle's Nest Mountain, the last home of the Golden Eagle in Ireland. The boat ride continues passing under high mountains, arched bridges and to Inisfallen Island, home to ruins of Inisfallen Abbey which dates back to 600 AD. Your boat journey will continue on to Ross Castle in the heart of Killarney National Park. Return to Killarney in the late afternoon and stay overnight at the Randles Court Hotel.

- Cocktails at The Champagne Bar, The Plaza
- 2-night stay at The Plaza, New York

The 1920's brought a surge of prosperity to New York City - the height of the Jazz Age, the birth of the Broadway musical, the construction of skyline-defining art deco skyscrapers, and a new era of urban development. It's no wonder they called it the "Roaring 20's!"

Chauffeured 1920's Themed Tour

Tour Manhattan's most iconic sites in a fully restored 1920's era classic car. Enjoy a 90-minute chauffeured ride as a local Roaring Twenties expert, wearing clothes inspired by the era, regales you with stories from this exciting, glamorous period in American history through present day. Have your pick of props to get into the spirit and choose either the Downtown or Midtown tour. Downtown Tour: Learn about the beginnings of the city as you view St. Paul's Chapel - George Washington's favorite parish; Trinity Church - burial site of Alexander Hamilton; and the Seaport - known as the birthplace of New York. Explore the cultural roots of NYC through Chinatown and Little Italy, and roll through swanky neighborhoods like SoHo and Tribeca in style!

Midtown Tour: Appreciate the views from the backseat of a luxury vehicle of Times Square - where the first New Year's Eve celebration was put on by the New York Times for its office opening in 1904; the New York Public Library - an icon of New York life; Flatiron Building - designed specifically to fill the space between 5th Avenue and Broadway, and more!

The Champagne Bar, The Plaza Hotel

The Champagne Bar began as the Champagne Porch, which was introduced with the hotel's opening in 1907. The Porch was a seasonal outdoor restaurant with only ten tables, patronized by the likes of Diamond Jim Brady and the Prince of Wales.

Today's Champagne Bar was beautifully renovated in 2014 and is located adjacent to The Plaza's lobby and Fifth Avenue foyer. Enjoy a $200 gift card and enjoy a champagne flight or other imbibement. The Plaza, New York

Enjoy a 2-night stay in a standard guest room (one king or one queen bed) with daily breakfast for two at the most famous hotel in New York, located on Fifth Avenue near Central Park. 12 Bottles of a Selection of Champagne Shipped to Your Home This Experience Includes:

- 12 bottles of Champagne shipped to your home
- Descriptive notes for each Champagne
- Video presentation and sommelier guided tasting
- Winspire booking & concierge service

Enjoy an incredible selection of Champagne from boutique wineries in the best crus of the Champagne region. The bottles are very rare in the U.S. and they perfectly represent the soul of the Champagne region.

You'll receive descriptive notes for each wine along with a video presentation and guided tasting with our sommelier. Includes 3 bottles of each of the following wines: Champagne Blanc de Noirs Patrick Soutiran Brut

Ambonnay is a quaint village surrounded by enchanting soft hills and approximately 1000 acres of vineyards. One of the most celebrated Grand Cru villages of Champagne and the undisputed reign of Pinot Noir, where just 2.5 acres of vineyards can cost more than one million dollars. The Soutiran family has been here for decades, with their home and small cellar right in the middle of heaven. Their land occupies 8 acres from which they produce around 20,000 bottles per year. They are recoltant manipulant, which means using grapes that come only from their own land and preparing their own blend. An astonishing savoir-faire that derives from years and years of experience combined with a unique terroir. Their Blanc de Noirs is made using 20% of reserve wines, showing up with a sparkling straw yellow color and a very fine and persistent perlage. The classic aromas of bread crust and chalk are very pronounced, and the notes of candied citrus fruit, white flowers and acacia honey are elegant. There is a remarkable body that is round and silky in the mouth, with balanced, rich aromas of dark berries that are typical of Pinot Noir.

Champagne Patrick Soutiran Brut Rosé Grand Cru

It would have been quite difficult to choose between the Cuvée Blanc de Noirs and the Cuvée Rosé from this small and magnificent winery in Ambonnay, so in the end we decided to include them both in this collection. These Champagnes are both unique, with different expressions of this excellent terroir which has for decades made Ambonnay one of the most important of the seventeen Grand Cru villages. Here you find many iconic Maisons such as Egly-Ouriet among many others.

This Brut Rosé is quite simply a masterpiece. The orange-pink color has an enchanting brilliance with a persistence of bubbles that denotes quality and finesse. On the nose you will find bread crust, small red fruits, strawberries, and rose petals, followed by beautiful notes of bitter orange and aromatic herbs. It is fullbodied on the palate and well balanced by the freshness and flavor of the Chardonnay. Juiciness fills the mouth with baked, spicy red fruit, a creamy persistent mousse, and an elegant mineral-laced finish, all of which are supported by the spectacular acidity. The sip is fresh, vital, and almost thirstquenching, with a savory finish.

Champagne Joly Champagne Cuvée Brut

The Joly Champagne house is a family property that has been passed down from generation to generation, and is the perfect example of the farming tradition in this splendid French region. In 1953 the brand was first created by Gilbert and Annette Joly and now the maison is headed by Remy and Patricia together with their sons. Here we are in the very heart of the Vallée de la Marne, where Pinot Meunier expresses all of its best qualities and characteristics, giving the resulting Champagne a pleasant structure that is balanced with intense fruity aromas. The Cuvée Brut is without a doubt the flagship of this Maison. The yellow color has ochre hues, opening up behind a pure white foam and fine perlage. The nose is striking for the fruity aroma, where hints of yellow peach and plum prevail, both typical of the Pinot Meunier grape. Following, the aroma matures with notes of pastry bread and butter cookies. In the mouth, it does not have an overpowering personality, and the acidity and chalk are attenuated. Instead, it is well rounded, soft, harmonious and easy to approach. The sip is fresh and pleasant, and goes well with the fruitiness. The result is an extremely pleasant Champagne that is very easy to drink.

Champagne Fumey Tassin Passé Composé Brut

La Maison Fumey Tassin was founded by Marie Tassin, the great granddaughter of Marcel Tassin who was among the first wine producers in the region to become récoltant manipulant. They are located on the hills of Celles sur Ource in one of the historic areas of Champagne. Mainly Pinot Noir is cultivated, but some traditional vines such as Pinot Blanc Vrai, Arbane and Petit Meslier that are less present in other areas of the region are also cultivated.

This Champagne has a pale yellow color and dense foam, with a fine and persistent perlage. The aromas that derive from the vines, known as primary aromas, are a beautiful mix of flowers and white fruit typical of Pinot Blanc, together with the red fruit of Pinot Noir. The pleasant notes of yeast, bread crust and dry pastry derive from the contact with yeast and aging. A Champagne that is very balanced, fragrant, fresh, savory and profound with a lovely acidity and an interesting long finish.

White Wine Lovers - 12 Bottles of French White Wine Shipped to Your Home

This Experience Includes:

- 12 bottles of French white wine shipped to your home
- Descriptive notes for each wine
- Video presentation and sommelier guided tasting
- Winspire booking & concierge service

Enjoy a unique selection of boutique French white wines of labels and vintages difficult to find outside of France. The collection, coming from smaller winemakers, are made up of 12 bottles representing the four best white wine regions of France with labels from Chablis, Burgundy, Loire and Alsace.

Chablis Denis Race 2020

The Domaine di Denis Race is located in the heart of Chablis, in the northern part of Burgundy, one of the most representative French wine-growing areas. This is classic Chablis at its best – 4th generation winemaker the Race family use virtually no oak creating a lean, linear, focused wine. The wine has a beautiful, deep straw yellow with a fresh and mineral nose. The fruity notes are elegant, reminiscent of white pulp fruits such as apple and peach.

Domaine Franck Millet Sancerre 2021

Founded in 1980 by Alain Cailbourdin, the domaine is now managed by his son Loïc who cultivates and vinifies the 20 hectares of Sauvignon Blanc located in Pouilly Fumé. Two years ago a new and more modern cellar was built, which allows the wine to be transferred only by gravity, without using a pump, creating less risk of oxidation and therefore less use of sulfites. The wine has a light straw yellow color with elegant greenish reflections, clear and bright. The nose reveals citrus notes, particularly the characteristic ones of grapefruit and passion fruit.

Marc Tempé Saint-Hyppolite Granite 2019

Marc and Anne Marie are both children of winemakers, growing up in the middle of vineyards, and since childhood have both learned to love the world of wine. The wine has a brilliant straw yellow color that is embellished with golden reflections. The olfactory range is delicate but broad with notes of pulpu white fruit, citrus peel, dried flowers, and particular notes of flint that are typical of this grape variety. On the palate, there is a tingling fresh acidity and an explosion of citrus and spice. The sip is lively and intense, moving divinely between fruity and mineral notes.

Marchand-Tawse Burgundy Chardonnay 2019

The history of the Marchand-Tawse winery is linked to that of Pascal Marchand, a wine producer now well known among wine enthusiasts across the world. Sensuously rich on the nose with toasty nut aromas, this Old World Burgundian Chardonnay is fullbodied and vibrant with ripe apple, lemon curd, toasty almond and hazelnut flavors finishing on a lingering tropical fruit note with great acidity for food. Includes door-to-door shipping in styrofoam boxes, taxes, duties and insurance. Delivery time is approximately 20-25 days. Once the shipment has cleared U.S. customs, a tracking number will be issued and forwarded to your attention in order for you to follow the status of the shipment. The package will need to be received and signed for by a person over the age of 21. Wine cannot be shipped to Canada, P.O. Boxes and to the states of Alaska, Hawaii, Mississippi, South Dakota, Utah, and Vermont. In the rare but possible case that one vintage becomes unavailable, it will be substituted with the same wine but the following vintage.

203 Sipping Italy at Home

Classic Tuscany Selection - 12 Bottles of Italian Red Wine
Shipped to Your Home This Experience

Includes:

- 12 bottles of Italian red wine shipped to your home
- Descriptive notes for each wine
- Video presentation and sommelier guided tasting
- Winspire booking & concierge service

Enjoy a unique assortment of 12 bottles of Italian red wines, each with high critic scores chosen by our sommelier team. These labels and vintages are difficult to find in the US. You'll receive descriptive notes for each wine along with a video presentation and guided tasting with our sommelier.

The Classic Tuscany selection includes 3 bottles of each of the following wines:

Brunello di Montalcino Cielo D'Ulisse Podere Le Ripi 2015 Cielo d'Ulisse is an amazing Brunello, and can certainly be considered among the great Tuscan wines that are produced based on the principles of biodynamic agriculture. The wine displays a spectacular, intensely red garnet color. The aromas are characteristic of the Sangiovese Grosso grape, with hints of blackberries, raspberries and plums, accompanied by elegant notes of undergrowth and balsamic bursts. Aging in large oak barrels brings out the typical, delicate notes of vanilla. Fresh in the mouth, with vibrant tannins. The sip is rich and fruity, the structure is powerful and determined, all divinely supported by an acidity that gives the wine a unique balance. An absolute jewel!

Chianti Classico Gran Selezione Conti Capponi Vigna La Fornace 2016

Conti Capponi is one of the most historical wineries in the Chianti region. This noble family has origins dating back to the 15th century, with a history inextricably linked to wine and this splendid territory. The color of this wine is a magnificent ruby red with garnet reflections. The nose is a sequence of aromas that ranges from ripe plum and blackcurrant to forest wildflowers. The aging in oak does not cover the fruit notes, but instead compliments them with hints of delicate, warm spices. There are lovely hints of moist tobacco. In the mouth it is soft and balanced, fragrant and fresh. The tannins are thick but at the same time fine and graceful. A bottle that distinguishes itself for its elegance and finesse.

Vino Nobile di Montepulciano Montemercurio Messaggero 2016

Montepulciano has always been one of the most important and scenic wine areas in Tuscany, together with Montalcino and Chianti, and its enduring blends are deeply rooted in history. In the glass, the color is an intense red ruby. Aromas consist of typical ripe berries and plum, followed by hints of vanilla and light licorice, cloves and black pepper. In the mouth the wine is round, smooth, ideal tannins, not too dry and not too sour with a long finish. Absolutely easy to drink, both clean and crisp. Il Messaggero is most certainly a champion of balance. A wine well done, very versatile in food pairing. Of course it goes well with red meat and game, but also a lovely dish of pasta with an important meat sauce ragù can stand up to this elegant wine without being overpowered.

Bolgheri Ruit Hora Caccia Al Piano 2017

Located along the Tuscan Coast, the winery Caccia al Piano has belonged to the Berlucchi family, one of the great families in Italian winemaking, since 2003. This wine displays an intense ruby-red color in the glass. The nose is rich and full, with hints of dark berries and aromatic herbs. Interesting hints of spice combine with woody and toasted notes. The sip is rich and mature. The tannins are not aggressive and are perfectly integrated with the wine's acidity. The medium structure has a long persistence, well supported by the aromatic complexity. Includes door-to-door shipping in styrofoam boxes, taxes, duties and insurance. Delivery time is approximately 15-20 days. Once the shipment has cleared U.S. customs, a tracking number will be issued and forwarded to your attention in order for you to follow the status of the shipment. The package will need to be received and signed for by a person over the age of 21. Wine cannot be shipped to Canada, P.O. Boxes and to the states of Alaska, Hawaii, Mississippi, South Dakota, Utah, and Vermont. In the rare but possible case that one vintage becomes unavailable, it will be substituted with the same wine but the following vintage.

204 96 Pecan Company

Bid now to take home your own tasty pecan treats - 2 assorted gift bozes, pecan brittle, pecan toffee, and a can of pecan carmel clusters!

South Carolina may be known for its peaches, producing more than the “Peach State” next door, but its pecans also rival those of states like Georgia that are also known for their pecans. Whether you say “pea-CAN” or “pea-KAHN” chances are you’ll run across this tasty nut on your travels to the Old 96 District especially in the small town of Ninety Six South Carolina, home to the Ninety Six National Historic Site.

About a block west of downtown sits the James Wesley Fouche home, a stately Southern building with tall white columns, and a second-story porch. Construction on the home began in 1848 and was finished in 1852. Mr. Fouche had a meeting there that led to the birth of Furman University not far away in Greenville, South Carolina. Stretching out beside the home you’ll find a grove of pecan trees which most likely date back to the early years of the Fouche home.

Today, John Murray and his family live in the home and run their business, “96 Pecan Company” next door. And while this is a great place for pecan lovers, even those who aren’t big on this buttery-tasting nut might want to stop here and check out what’s inside.

As you turn off the main road, be on the lookout for a green colored metal building with an old Coca-Cola vending machine near the entrance. Outside there’s also a few benches and a sign with a bright red tractor signifying you’ve found the 96 Pecan Company. Another sign asks people to, “Please Drive Slowly: Our squirrels don’t know one nut from another.” Step inside the building and you may feel like you’ve stepped back in time. Just beyond the racks of pecan products, old shelves lining the back wall are filled with vintage metal cans like Prince Albert, Velvet, and Camel tobacco products. Mixed into the assortment of tins you’ll find a wide array of antiques helping bring the past into view.

While you can certainly spend time browsing the collection of antiques, it’s the pecans that are the real stars of the store. John and Charlotte Murray give their customers plenty of reasons to take home some Murray Farm products. You are probably familiar with tasting rooms at wineries or breweries, but the Murrays have a truly mouth-watering tasting experience for people of all ages. Nothing fancy, but once you've tried some of the more than 20 varieties of pecan products, you most likely will find it difficult not to buy a bag or two to take home.

Tastings start with a simple white paper placemat put on top of the counter. From there, the Murrays start bringing out the pecan treats. One by one, the treats are placed on the mat, and you begin to get a taste of what makes this an extraordinary experience.

You might want to start with the simple, roasted pecans and work your way to the honey glazed, bourbon, or key lime pecans then move up to other best-sellers like the Southern Pecan Toffee (one of John Murray's favorites) or the Pecan Carmel Clusters. (Are you hungry yet?)

While you are tasting or browsing through the items in the store, John Murray will likely tell you a few stories, show you old pictures or if you're into football you might want to get him started talking about his days playing football at Clemson University under Coach Danny Ford. He also has a puzzle on hand that at first looks simple, but it will likely stump most everyone who tries to solve it.

While tours aren't part of the experience, John can certainly explain the intricacies of pecan production and might get a chance to show you around. Growing and harvesting pecans is not a simple process. Bringing the pecan from the trees to the bags in the store requires a lot of work. Along the way, many things can go wrong, and farmers can lose thousands of pounds of product. Knowing about what goes into farming pecans certainly makes you appreciate all the time and effort that goes into the quality of the 96 Pecan products, a true treasure in South Carolina's Old 96 District.
